There was pleasure in the house - hold Bird - ie Blossom came to cheer;

PICKING CHERRIES DOWN THE LANE.

WORD AND CHORDS.

Words by G. Cooper. Music by H. Hillard.

It was in the golden summer,
And we sat beneath the trees
There were fads and dainties gleaming,
There was laughter on the breeze.
In the green and sunny orchard,
Roses hands and arms again,
While we lingered there together,
Picking cherries, picking cherries,
Down the lane.

Chorus.

How I loved the happy moments
How I long for them again.
When we lingered there together,
Picking cherries, picking cherries,
Down the lane.

Oh, the boughs with roses laden
They were for beyond her reach,
But I helped her, and she thanked me,
Sweet and kind-like was her speech.
While hands and feet were busy,
In my own world of roses,
And I lingered there again,
Picking cherries, picking cherries,
Down the lane.

Now the scented blossoms whithered
All the leaves that were so full,
And the birds that were so merry
Have now left us all so dull.
You the very daisies faded
Over hill, vale and field,
Losing her we were picking cherries,
Picking cherries down the lane.

Second song is set of Chorus, in the year 1910, by LEE & WALKER, in the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.
